For Immediate Release

Sixteen Randolph Public Schools Students accepted to SEMSBA Music Festivals

On Saturday, February 4th, Randolph Public Schools Music Students traveled to Walpole, MA to audition for the 2012 SEMSBA Music Festivals. The students performed scales, solo literature and sight-reading passages for adjudicators and the RPS music department is excited to announce that sixteen Randolph students were selected to perform in the SEMSBA Honor Ensembles. The accepted students will have the opportunity to work with talented conductors and perform with musicians from 30 other South Shore communities at the Junior and Senior SEMSBA festivals to be held this spring. The Senior SEMSBA Festival Concert will be held on Saturday, March 17th at Hanover High School and the Junior SEMSBA Festival Concert will be held on Saturday, May 5th at Braintree East Middle School.
