Ms. Chakara Cardillo
8th Grade Engineering Teacher
Randolph Community Middle School

Chakara Cardillo grew up in Brockton, MA. She earned an undergraduate degree from Bridgewater State University, Bridgewater, MA. Ms. Cardillo is an 8th grade Engineering teacher at Randolph Community Middle School. She has an impactful, positive effect on school climate and culture, and is a key member of the Positive Behavior Intervention Support (PBIS) team. Ms. Cardillo helped to develop the school store for PBIS. Her strong presence in the halls is highly respected, which is demonstrated through her positive relationships with students. Ms. Cardillo is a teacher-leader and takes initiative in many areas such as helping and supporting teachers in their classrooms with behavior management and curriculum planning. We are grateful to have Ms. Cardillo teaching in our district, making a difference in the lives of students and leaving an impact at RCMS. Thank you for your service, Ms. Cardillo!

Ms. Eileen Vlieger
AIM Social Worker
Randolph High School

Eileen Vlieger grew up in Manchester, NH. She earned an undergraduate degree in Psychology from St. Bonaventure University. She also earned a Master's Degree in Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University. Ms. Vlieger, AIM Social Worker, is incredibly devoted to the emotional growth of our students. She has helped develop learning plans for a number of students, and works with them on problem solving and goal setting. She has done home visits, brought in food, spare t-shirts and belts and mediated conflicts between students and teachers, both inside and outside of AIM. She has every AIM parent on text and speed dial, and communicates with them regularly, reporting the positive as well as areas of growth. In a phrase, Ms. Vlieger does "whatever it takes". Ms. Vlieger, your commitment and devotion to student growth at the AIM Program shine; thank you!
