Dear Parents, Guardians and Students,

I want to wish each of you Happy Holidays and a great start to the new year! The holiday season will enable us to connect with familiar faces, places, and things. I also want to express my gratitude to you for entrusting us with and allowing us to educate your most prized possession, your children. I am thankful for the opportunity that you have given our staff to educate your child/children in an environment that is safe and inspiring.

This time of the year is always very special as families gather to reminisce on the past and discuss their dreams for the future. As we take this time to reflect on 2017 I am sure we can find many shining moments that make us smile. If we can channel our positive energy we can counter the pervasive negativity and help put more smiles on the faces of those around us.

We love working with your children and many staff demonstrate their dedication by traveling many miles to Randolph each day to work with the best students anywhere. It is because of the children and our love for education that we remain dedicated, and parental support helps to keep us moving in the right direction.

No matter how you celebrate and share at this time of year, I wish you and your loved ones joy and well-being. We bring you special holiday greetings from some of our students and principals; watch this video.

I look forward to 2018 – a year of great work by one and all. Most important during the holiday break is spending time with those we love. Be safe and enjoy the Holiday break.

With Randolph pride,

Thomas Anderson, Superintendent
