

New Principal

JOHN F. KENNEDY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Randolph Public Schools is pleased to announce the new Principal of the John F. Kennedy Elementary School Effective for the 2023-2024 school year

Dr. Meliane Hackett

Congratulations!

Biography

Dr. Meliane Hackett started her career in education in Virginia in 2008. She is currently an Assistant Principal in Boston Public Schools. She served in the roles of Special Education Teacher, Educational Director, and Director of Special Education. As an Assistant Principal, she supervises, evaluates, and supports teachers, paras, social workers, and related service staff at the K0 - 8th grade levels.

Dr. Hackett has a B.A. in criminal justice, a graduate degree in education and a doctorate in educational leadership. She believes that all students deserve high quality instruction. Dr. Hackett is passionate about student growth, achievement, special education, and family engagement.

