

New Principal

LYONS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Randolph Public Schools is pleased to announce the new Principal of the Elizabeth G. Lyons Elementary School effective for the 2023-2024 school year.

Kelley Breen
Congratulations!

Biography

Mrs. Breen has been an educator for more than 25 years. Mrs. She has been with the Randolph Public Schools District for six years. For five of those years she was the Assistant Principal at Young Elementary School where she built a reputation for being organized, fair, and student focused. Prior to coming to Randolph Public Schools, Mrs. Breen spent nineteen years in Lynn Public Schools. During this time, she was a teacher and a curriculum coach.

Mrs. Breen is committed to student learning, supporting teachers, and engaging parents to create strong connections and the best possible outcomes for students.

Mrs. Breen holds a Bachelor of Education degree from Endicott College and a Master's in School Counseling and Leadership from Salem State College. Her current licenses include: principal, elementary teacher, school counselor, and special education administrator.

