Dear Randolph Families, Staff, and Community,

We are deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Cheryl Frazier who was a dedicated member of the Randolph School Committee (SC) for more than a decade. Additionally, Cheryl served on various SC Sub-Committees over the years, including – most recently – the Negotiations Sub-Committee. Cheryl was a valuable and resourceful member and team player.

Cheryl's life was all about serving others and she did so with great pride, joy, and compassion. She was a public servant in the role of an EMT with the City of Boston for 34 years, including being promoted to Lieutenant in 1988.

Randolph Public Schools, the SC, and the community at large has lost a dear soul and wonderful person in Cheryl. We express our heartfelt deepest condolences to the family and friends of Cheryl Frazier. May the comfort of God and fond memories of Cheryl strengthen and uphold all who knew her, as she was also a servant of the Lord.

Services will be held for Cheryl as follows. Please visit Cartwright Funeral Home's website for more details.
