Randolph School Committee Update on Finalists Interviews for Superintendent of Schools

RANDOLPH, MA – The Randolph School Committee would like to update you on finalists interviews for the Superintendent of Schools position. At this writing, there are only two finalists as Dr. Earl Metzler has withdrawn his candidacy. The two finalists are: Dr. Bruce Pontbriand and Ms. Thea Stovell.

Both Dr. Pontbriand and Ms. Stovell will be interviewed today, January 10, as follows.

5:25 PM – 6:25 PM – Ms. Stovell
7:00 PM – 8:00 PM – Dr. Pontbriand

The School Committee will still start their meeting at 4:15 PM at the RCTV Studio with the Pledge of Allegiance followed by Community Speaks.

Ms. Thea Stovell is the Interim Superintendent of RPS for the 2018-2019 school year, and the former Principal of the Randolph Community Middle School in Randolph, MA. Prior to holding these positions, Ms. Stovell was the Founding Principal and Director of AIM Academy in Randolph High School.

Dr. Bruce Pontbriand is currently the Human Capital Director, providing leadership and school planning for TechBoston Academy located in Boston, MA since 2005. He also serves as the Comprehensive School Planning Coordinator and is a Corr Team member for initiation and implementation of TechBoston Academy pilot school concept. Since 2013, he has worked as a member of the HS Superintendent's Office and currently with the District's Operational Superintendent to support district principals and staff in all aspects of their accreditation process.
