"Building Tomorrow, Today"

Ms. Thea R. Stovell, Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Naia Wilson, Principal
Ms. Katy Sleczkowsk, Assistant Principal
Ms. Lisa Sleboda, Assistant Principal for Special Education
Mr. Jamaal Rodney-Bonnett, Dean of Students

Dear Randolph Community Middle School Families,

On behalf of all the teachers and staff of Randolph Community Middle School, I would like to welcome you to the 2021-2022 school year! We hope that you had the opportunity to relax and rejuvenate this summer. I am honored to be the principal of Randolph Community Middle School and know that together we can continue the work of developing a caring and rigorous environment for your children to learn and grow. I am highlighting a few reminders for the upcoming school year preparation. In an effort to conserve paper and expedite communication, my primary mode of communication will be via email. If you require paper copies of materials, please call the main office and we will send them out via US mail.

Introducing our New Administrative Team

Katy Sleczkowski - Assistant Principal: Some of you may know me as Ms. S as the Assistant Principal at Donovan elementary school. After a short time in another district I am extremely excited to be back working in Randolph and I am looking forward to working with you and your families.

Jamaal Rodney-Bonette - Dean of Culture: I am excited to return to RCMS from being the Drama teacher back in 2016. In my hiatus I was a dean, behavioral coach, and art teacher in Boston Public Schools. I am ready to transform the school culture and create an environment for all students to succeed.

Lisa Sleboda - Assistant Principal of Special Education

I am excited to join the team at RCMS. As a career Special Educator, I have co-taught ELA and Math, directed specialized programs at an area Collaborative and most recently served as a Special Education Administrator in a public school district. I look forward to partnering with teachers and families in supporting students to reach their full potential.
